NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.
NEW YORK, April 21.—Today's events apparently convinced the conservative element in the stock exchange that war is to be a fact, and demonstrated that the liquidation incident to war had by no means been completed.

Early in the day New York held above the London parity and there were occasional rallies even after the receipt of the news that General Woodford had been given his passport, but reports from the cabinet, coming out of Washington indicating preparations for an immediate forward movement of the armed forces of the United States showing that a war already practically existing, caused selling. The brokers on the floor of the exchange manifested considerable enthusiasm, and the restrum was handsomely decorated with American flags, but they continued to sell.

There was no rally in the final dealings, the market continuing active and weak and closing at the lowest. During the early part of the day selling for foreign account was large and offerings were well absorbed.

Call loans continued to be made on the local stock exchange at as low as 2 per cent. Foreign demand for cotton and breadstuffs continues very keen and is making exchange all the time. The demand is based on expectation that supplies may be cut off by war breaks out. Banks all over the country are well fortified and even in the event that a large government loan is to be floated it is pointed out that little of this money will be exported, but will rather find its way quickly back into the channels of the home market.

The total sales of stocks today were 20,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Provisions, not grain, led the way today on exchange.
The excellent cash demand for hog products and the expected call to supply the army and navy influenced speculators to hold up with pig, lamb, and short ribs. Outside buying orders were more numerous than at any time since 1893. At the end, York pork showed an advance of 6c per barrel, lard and ribs gained 1-2000 each.
Wheat was very erratic, but recovered an early break of 1-4c and closed with a net gain for the day of 101-2, the latter in September. Corn and oats sympathized with the other market, closing 1-2008 higher than yesterday.

NEW BUILDING OPENED

Interesting Ceremonies at the Normal School.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

Address of the Occasion Delivered by Hon.
J. L. M. Curry, Oyster Inspectors Commissioner.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the formal opening of the Domestic Science building took place at the Normal school in the chapel of the institution.
The building is a fine structure, built from all parts of the country, with in attendance, Rhode Island, New York, Philadelphia and Washington being well represented.

The exercises were opened by the singing of a hymn and the reading of a chapter from the Bible. The Rev.
Dr. Clarke, of Brooklyn, then offered prayer. In doing so he said: "Dispel these clouds of sorrow and grief into us a peaceful outcome of the situation." Dr. Frisell, the principal of the institution, then introduced the speaker of the occasion, Hon. J. L. M.
Curry, of Richmond, former United States minister to Spain.

Mr. Curry's address, which was on the subject of the education of the negro and the founders of the institution, was very interesting and inspired. In closing his remarks he allowed himself to diverge from his subject long enough to say:

"We have made great preparations for war. I re-echo the prayer of Dr.
Clarke. Such a calamity I deplore and hope it may be averted by some diplomatic move. War will bring calamity on Spain and our country, and courageous men and to our own land as well. But if hearts cannot be pacified and arms cannot be arrested, the southland will do her duty on decks of men-of-war and in glory fields of battle. Thousands will know no superior in courage, but will distinguish themselves more prominently in the past and under the leadership of the patriot statesman and noble-minded General Fitzhugh Lee."

Mr. Curry spoke for over an hour and a half, and his remarks were of such a character that it did not appear to be half that time.

Dr. McKelvey, editor of the Brooklyn Inquirer, was then introduced by the principal and was asked to make an address. The doctor highly complimented the work of the school and the management of the institution. At first he spoke of the school as a national order and along this line he said:

"I have been through nearly all the departments of the school and find everywhere work of the highest order and an air of industry and industry that there is a printing office here, too, but I assure you I avoided that. I see enough of that sort of thing in Brooklyn all the time."

After he had concluded his remarks those present were requested to repair to the Domestic Science building, where the exercises would be continued.

After a number of selections by the school choir, Mr. D. Willis James, of New York, vice-president of the board of foreign missions, was asked to make a statement. He did, Mr. C.
Ogden, of New York, president of the board of trustees of the school, followed Mr. James in a few well selected words, and then the benediction was pronounced by Bishop McVicker, of Rhode Island.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon the thirtieth anniversary of the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute was celebrated. The exercises were very interesting and greatly enjoyed by those in attendance.

Taken as a whole, the day's events were decidedly successful and everyone seemed to be highly pleased with the school and the work that has been accomplished.

ENDED IN DISCORD.

Effort to Organize Naval Reserves a Failure.

If any of the men who put their names down on Mr. W. S. Boynton's list of naval reserves regret their action they ought to be happy this morning. As a matter of fact the reserves were the last where they were before Mr.
Boynton began his campaign. Instead of being shot while in the line of duty on their good ship or blown up by a mine or torpedo, it was their fate to be talked to death last night.

The tragedy occurred in the court house. It is alleged that soon after Mr.
Boynton had secured the requisite number of men differences concerning the selection of officers arose. It was heard, Mr. Boynton's friends desired that he should head the reserves, but others aspired. Contests were also made in filling all the other positions.
Last night Commander Caffee, of Norfolk, came over to swear the men in and perfect the organization. When the roll was called, however, the number responding was found to be too small to enable him to proceed. (This was due to the fact that some of the men insisted upon naming the officers prior to the formal organization of the company. An attempt was made to comromise, but it proved a failure, and Commander Caffee declared the meeting adjourned. Mr. Edwin Hurley, of Newport News, opposed this action in a patriotic speech. Eloquence, however, proved futile in the face of official ambition, and the reserves dissolved.)

Following is the list of signers:

FIFTEEN WILL GO.

Members of Peninsula Guards Ready to Fight.
It was learned yesterday from a reliable source that fifteen of the members of the Peninsula Guards declared at the meeting Wednesday night, that they were willing and ready to go to Cuba with the American army of invasion. The officers of the company volunteered to go to a man.

The officers were the same as those received by the Huntington Rifles, of Newport News, as was reported by the Daily Press yesterday.

They are very important at this time, owing to the rumor to the effect that Governor Tyler had stated he intended to call on the Fourth Regiment, first, There were thirty-seven members of the company present when the question was asked, and all but three said they would fight in this country and fifteen were willing to fight anywhere.

GLOUCESTER AND MATTHEWS.

Decision as to Inspectors in These Counties.
At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning the second day's session of the Virginia State Board of Fisheries was called to order by the president, Dr.
Frank Fletcher, and the roll was called. General R. A. Ayres being the only member absent.

The matter of selecting inspectors for Gloucester and Mathews counties was at once taken up and after a long and thorough debate the following gentlemen were selected:
Gloucester county (three districts)—
Mr. C. H. Muse, J. H. Nye and Mr.
R. C. Ward.
Mathews county (three districts)—
Mr. William H. Winder, Mr. J. W.
Miner and Mr. William H. Gayle.

THE BAPTIST REVIVAL.

The meetings at the Baptist church are gaining in interest daily. Dr. M.
E. Broadbush, of Bristol, Tenn., who has been conducting them, is much liked here. He is an able pulpit orator.
The congregations, especially at night, are large. The Baptist church is one of the strongest organizations in town. It has made amazing progress since Dr. Woodfin, who ranks as the greatest preacher in the South, became its pastor. Meetings are held every afternoon at 4 o'clock and are well attended and interesting.

PANHELM MEETING.

Captain L. L. Hart and Lieutenant John Enright, who have been in charge of the work of the Salvation Army in this city for the past eighteen months, will have their farewell meeting tonight, at 8 o'clock in the hall, corner of Hope and Queen streets. They will leave on a much needed furlow before proceeding to their new commands.
These officers have made many friends in this city, where they have tried to help people up to a better life. They will say good by tonight. All are welcome to the meeting.

DUTY IN WASHINGTON.

Captain Duval, the artillery expert and special aid to Secretary Agter, who was formerly connected with Fort Monroe, and who has been making an investigation of the southern sea coast defenses, returned to Washington Wednesday and reported the results of his trip to Adjutant General Corbin.

ARRIVALS AT THE BARNES.

The following were the arrivals at the Hotel Barnes yesterday: Alonso Parker, ex- U. S. Gordon Cutting, trustee; consideration,
